I wasn't all that sure of your success when this all started - and I'm glad I was wrong. You've worked very hard and deserve all kinds of praise. I can hardly wait to see what happens next!

Just checked Heidi's foot - no new blood. Think I'll have a glass of wine to calm my nerves + then we shall be back to normal.

Again - Congratulations - I'm proud of you - and so are the Warholas.

Fondly,

Peg
